

Elizabeth is the firm’s Office Manager and Paralegal. She graduated from Oakland City University in 2014, receiving a Bachelor of Science in Psychology, a Business Minor, and a Specialization in Addictions Counseling. Soon after graduating, she worked as a Victim’s Advocate at Albion Fellows Bacon Center counseling victims of Domestic and Sexual Violence, Stalking, and Human Trafficking in Southern Indiana. She also worked at Baylor University in Waco, TX, where she led the Title IX Training and Prevention Program and served as Staff Advisor for the Baylor “It’s On Us” Chapter.

She lives in Chicago. When she is not working, she can be found working out, relaxing at the beach, walking her dog, or making homemade deep-dish pizza with her family.
